

Access to health infrastructures for start-ups and SMEs aiming for commercialization with excellent client validation opportunities, hands-on feedback and input for product development.

PARTNERS

Tallinn Science Park Tehnopol (coordinator)
Haapsalu Neurological Rehabilitation Centre
Tallinn University
The North Denmark Region
CoLab Denmark, Region of Southern Denmark
South-Eastern Finland University of Applied Sciences
Oulu University of Applied Sciences
South Ostrobothnia Health Technology Development Centre
Upper Silesian Agency for Entrepreneurship and Development Ltd

Laurea University of Applied Sciences
WITENO GmbH
Region Zealand
Latvian Health Tourism Cluster
Vilnius University
The Municipality of Lublin City
Innovation Skåne AB
ScanBalt® fmba

ABOUT THE PROJECT

ProVaHealth aims to overcome the following challenges:

- Most Living Lab infrastructure serves only locally or regionally
- Slow market uptake of innovations

www.scanbalt.org/livinglabs

Duration:

Oct 2017 to March 2020

Total budget:

€ 3.02 Million

ERD Fund:

€ 2,35 Million